

Judy B. Johnson, M. Ed.

Amarillo College ■ Associate Professor ■ Chair, ACcess Division
2201 South Washington, Amarillo, TX 79178
Office: 806-371-5429
Library 305 I

Education

- Post Graduate Coursework, Appalachian State University, Boone, NC, 2006
- Post Graduate Coursework, West Texas A & M University, Canyon, TX, 1980-1995
- Reading Specialist Certification, University of Houston, Houston, TX, 1979
- Master of Education, Stephen F. Austin State University, Nacogdoches, TX, 1977
- Bachelor of Arts, Houston Baptist University, Houston, TX, 1972

Professional Experience

- Amarillo College
 - 2005-2010 Division Chair, Access Division
 - 1993-2005 Associate Professor of Reading/Department Coordinator
 - 1990-1993 Coordinator of Disability Services
 - 1985-1990 Adjunct Instructor, Reading
- Macmillan Publishing Company
 - 1986-1990 Language Arts Consultant
- Amarillo Independent School District
 - 1979-1983 Curriculum Coordinator, Secondary Reading
- Ft. Bend Independent School District
 - 1977-1979 Department Chair, Reading
 - 1972-1979 Teacher of English, Social Studies, Reading

Professional Development

- Advanced Kellogg Institute, 2009
- Kellogg Institute, 2006
- Carl Perkins Accelerated Learning Developmental Mathematics and Reading Forum, 2006
- Texas A & M University Summer Seminar on Academic Administration, 2005

College Service

- Co-chair, Testing and Remediation Committee
- Vice-President's Council
- Academic Affairs Committee

Special Interest/Accomplishment

- Hold Developmental Education Specialist Certification from Kellogg Institute, 2007
- Led Certification Team in attaining National Association for Developmental Education (NADE) Exemplary Certification for Amarillo College's Developmental Reading, Writing and Mathematics programs
- Developed Online and Hybrid courses for Reading Techniques II (RDNG-0331)
- Textbook Reviewer, McGraw Hill
- Textbook Reviewer, Allyn & Bacon/Longman
- Textbook Reviewer, Houghton - Mifflin